

EBS Law Term 2023 – Curriculum

Module 1 – Foundations and Key Qualifications of Transnational and European Commercial Law (Mandatory – 9 ECTS)
Introduction to Comparative Law	Introduction to European Union Law	Introduction to Private International Law	Introduction to Transnational Commercial Law	Seminar: Students' Presentations on Issues of Transnational and European Commercial Law	Gleiss Lutz Seminar on Transnational Commercial Law
Module Area 2 – Specialising in Transnational Commercial Law (Electives)
Module 2.1 Essentials of Transnational Markets: EU Internal Market Law & Competition Law (3 ECTS)	Module 2.2 Transnational and European Banking Supervision and Fundamental Rights (3 ECTS)	Module 2.3 Contracting in Transnational Trade (3ECTS)	Module 2.4 Transnational and European Intellectual Property Law (3 ECTS)	Module 2.5 Transnational Environmental Law (3 ECTS)	Module 2.6 Transnational Commercial Litigation (3 ECTS)	Module 2.7 Transnational Commercial Arbitration (3 ECTS)
Module Area 3 – Researching in Transnational and European Commercial Law (Electives)
Module 3.1 Research Methods in Transnational Commercial Law (3 ECTS)	Module 3.2 Small Legal Thesis (3 ECTS)		Module 3.3 Large Legal Thesis (6 ECTS)
Module Area 4 – Introduction to German Law (Elective)
Module 4 Introduction to German Law (3 ECTS)

- All courses can be subject to changes and depend on a minimum number of participants.
- Module 1 is mandatory for international students. Modules from Module Areas 2, 3, and 4 are electives and can be combined freely.
- Students can receive between 21 and 33 ECTS credits.